

Sprint 2 retro document: a short description of what you did well, what did not go well, and what could have been done better in Sprint 2.

What went well

- frontend and backend finally connected
- database remodeled

What did not go well

- a lot of big changes(model/template) had to be made to make it work

How to do better

- plan better before writing code
- understand the task and plan everything ahead